LE CHOCOLAT
ALAIN DUCASSE
MANUFACTURES À PARIS

IN THE WORLD OF CHOCOLATE,
THERE ARE THE ‘ROASTERS’
AND THEN THERE ARE THE ‘MELTERS’.

Just as chefs create their own sauces and bakers bake their bread, chocolatiers make their own chocolate.

Making one’s own chocolate does not mean buying chocolate to melt and process. Making one’s own chocolate means roasting, cracking, grinding, and conching the cocoa bean to transform it into chocolate.

WE, AT LES MANUFACTURES ALAIN DUCASSE, ARE CHOCOLATE ROASTERS.

For the past ten years, we have been the only chocolatiers to roast 100% of our chocolate on a large scale right in the heart of Paris.

All of our chocolate recipes are created and manufactured using our own chocolate production.

Similarly, we cook nuts to make our own pralines, and use fresh fruit to create our own ganaches.

WE DO NOT BUY OUR CHOCOLATE – WE MAKE IT.

This is a conscious choice reflecting contemporary craftsmanship that honours tradition and holds manual skills in high respect.

That's why we call ourselves 'Manufactures'. Because we make by hand. From start to finish. Today, unlike the term 'baker', defined as a person who makes their own bread, the term 'chocolatier' is unfortunately not reserved for those who make their own chocolate. That is why we are fighting for recognition.

We are committed to offering our customers a unique chocolate, with a true and memorable taste.

Ingredient, expertise, taste

Alain Ducasse

THE MANUFACTURES

THE MANUFACTURE DE CHOCOLAT WAS CREATED IN 2013, ESTABLISHING THE FOUNDING PRINCIPLES OF A GRAND ADVENTURE BASED ON THE MAXIM 'INGREDIENT, EXPERTISE, TASTE'.

Over the past 10 years, 3 other Manufactures have also been opened, each with its own expertise: coffee, ice cream and biscuits. These Manufactures are the work of Alain Ducasse. They are the reflection of his quest for true, authentic taste and his vision as a chef. All our products are made using raw ingredients so that we can oversee the manufacturing process from start to finish, and they are crafted lovingly by hand by our chefs and teams in our Manufactures in Paris. Every single creation is prepared with one goal in mind: to conjure up meaningful, unforgettable memories.

INGREDIENT

We select our cocoa beans for their purity and personality, sourcing them from around fifteen different locations for an array of distinctive tastes and characters. Origin is key to enjoying Chocolat Alain Ducasse products.

EXPERTISE

Our philosophy has remained the same for the past ten years. We transform every bean into chocolate using our skill in every stage of the bean-to-bar process and the techniques passed on meticulously to our teams. Each bean is processed according to its specific character: conching for as long or as little required, cooking lightly or thoroughly, adding very little cocoa butter and less sugar.

TASTE

Our chocolates have distinctive tastes and rich and varied textures. They are made with personality-rich recipes to create extraordinary memories that are always divine. Whether intense, well-rounded, peppery, plant-based, roasted, fruity, delicate, floral, spicy, mild, generous, melting or crisp, we have an array of flavours for even more pleasure.

OUR COMMITMENTS

INGREDIENT SELECTION

Each origin meets precise specifications: the beans are sourced from small, fairtrade plantations, and are grown in a sustainable environment that respects biodiversity, and indigenous and ancestral cocoa varieties. Keeping as close as possible to the raw product, our recipes contain no additives, colourings or preservatives.

FRENCH SAVOIR-FAIRE

Le Chocolat Alain Ducasse has been awarded the EPV label. EPV stands for Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant [Living Heritage Company in English]. Issued by the French government, this label recognises small and medium-sized companies that are emblematic of French industrial or artisanal excellence. These companies showcase the high added value of 'Made in France' manufacturing.

FAIR VALUES

We work with producers that provide a fair and equitable working environment for all their employees. In 2022, the professional gender equality index for Les Manufactures was 87/100.

FOR THE PLANET

Here at Le Chocolat Alain Ducasse, we closely monitor every stage of our operations and their impact. That is why our packaging is produced in France and is made of 90% recycled and recyclable cardboard sourced from forests in Europe. We also recycle our organic waste. For example, we redistribute cocoa bean skins to farmers and even the Paris city council for use as a natural fertiliser. We use mock products made from resin and produced in France for our displays to avoid waste.
